

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2798 - SB 2925

March 6, 2002

SUMMARY OF BILL: Exempts counties having a population of not less than 87,900 nor more than 89,000 (Bradley and Wilson) and counties having a population of not less than 16,000 nor more than 16,100 (Polk) according to the 2000 or any subsequent federal census from the provisions of the Inter-basin Water Transfer Act.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Revenues - Not Significant

Decrease Local Govt. Expenditures - Not Significant

Estimate assumes the affected local governments would no longer be required to obtain permits required by the Inter-basin Water Transfer Act. This would result in a decrease in state revenues from such permit fees and a decrease in local government expenditures for those required to pay such fees in the absence of the bill.
